

DEPARTMENT OF CODES & REGULATIONS
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

GREG FISCHER
MAYOR

ROBERT KIRCHDORFER
DIRECTOR

Promulgated ABC Fees Waiver effective December 3, 2020

In order to diminish the economic hardship on holders of alcoholic beverage licenses for Bars & Restaurants, and Related Licenses, the Louisville Metro Department of Codes & Regulations is waiving license renewals for certain license types as listed below.

Licensees who paid renewal fees in 2020 will not pay in 2021, and those that paid the 25 percent reduced renewal fee in October or November will receive a 75 percent reduction on their renewal fee in 2021. No refunds will be issued.

Licensees who have not paid renewal fees for 2020 will not be required to pay renewal fees until 2021.

The following licenses will receive a 12-month renewal fee waiver:

- Brewer's License
- Caterer's License
- Extended Hours Supplemental License
- Limited Restaurant License
- Microbrewery License
- NQ1 Retail Drink License – convention centers, racetracks, state parks, etc.
- NQ2 Retail Drink License – restaurants, hotel restaurants/bars, airport restaurants, etc.
- NQ3 Retail Drink License – private clubs, bed and breakfasts, etc.
- NQ4 Retail Malt Beverage Drink License – supplemental for small farm wineries, breweries, etc.
- Qualified Historic Site License
- Quota Retail Drink License (bars)
- Special Sunday Retail Drink License
- Supplemental Bar License
- Related local Extended Hours Licenses (2 a.m. & 4 a.m.)
- Authorized Public Consumption (Commercial Quadricycle Permit is Required).

This promulgated waiver supersedes previous waivers.

Robert Kirchdorfer
Director/ABC Administrator