General Forest Rules

- All trash and garbage must be placed in approved containers.
- Alcoholic beverages are prohibited.
- All dogs must be leashed at all times. Users are responsible for their pets.
- Hunting, trapping, shooting or carrying of firearms (including BB guns and paint-ball guns) are not allowed in the forest. All animals are protected.
- The cutting of trees or gathering of live plant material of any kind is prohibited. All plants are protected.
- Horseback riding is prohibited within the Horine Section of the Forest. Horseback riding is allowed within the Tom Wallace and Paul Yost Recreation Areas, but only on trails blazed with a horseshoe symbol. Horses are not allowed on the Siltstone Trail, Mitch McConnell Loop Trail, or the Scotts Gap Loop Trail.
- Use of off-road vehicles (ORVs), all-terrain vehicles (ATVs), and mountain bikes is prohibited within the forest. Vehicle use is limited to paved roads. Parking on the grass or outside of formal parking areas is prohibited.
- Fires are allowed in designated areas only. Fires are limited to established fire rings and grills.

NOTE: FIRES THAT ARE OUT OF CONTROL ARE PROHIBITED AND MAY BE PUNISHABLE BY LAW UNDER KRS 149.400. KENTUCKY FIRE HAZARD SEASON MAY RESTRICT CAMPFIRES FROM FEBRUARY 15 THROUGH APRIL 30 AND OCTOBER 1 THROUGH DECEMBER 15.

Horine Section-Specific Rules

- All users must obtain a permit and have the permit with them at all times (day users). Overnight campers should display the permit at the campsites. Day users should display the permit in vehicle front windshields.
- All groups and campers must be under the leadership of an adult (18 years of age or older).
- Leaders assume all responsibility for their group, damage to the facilities used by their group, and the observance of all rules of the Horine Section by their group.
- Use of the Horine Conference Center (Manor House) is by reservation only and restricted to all other users.
- All day users must park in the main parking lot. For overnight campers in the family loop, vehicle parking is provided at campsites (one per campsite). Four parking spaces are shared between group sites #1 and #2. Group site #3 has two parking spaces.

NOTE: PARKING ON THE GRASS OR OUTSIDE OF FORMAL PARKING AREAS IS PROHIBITED.
