Second Reading of Proposed Police Merit Board Rule Change

On January 25 at 9:30 AM, the Louisville Metro Police Merit Board will hold a second reading at its regularly scheduled meeting regarding an amendment to Rule 2.3. The amendment concerns who must be present to constitute a quorum at discipline-related meetings and hearings. The location of the meeting has changed – it will now be by video teleconference only, and can be viewed via Facebook by searching “Louisville Metro Police Merit Board.”
