- DRO includes approximately 2,483 properties
- DRO area includes 8,911 acres of land zoned RR or 68.18% percent of overlay area
- From 2007 to 2022, 95 cases were reviewed under the DRO; a large portion of these related to single lot residential development

History of Floyds Fork DRO

- Planning for Floyds Fork began after the adoption of the 1979 comprehensive plan.
- The 1980, “Comprehensive Plan Implementation: Environmental and Essential Services Constraints” study recommended rezoning Floyds Fork to allow only very low intensity uses.
- This study led to the 1981, “Floyds Fork Management Plan” This study recommended numerous measure to protect the environment and preserve scenic resources of the Floyds Fork corridor.
- In 1985, a major rezoning was proposed based on the preceding studies. Substantial opposition to this proposal led to the deferral of this rezoning.

History of Floyds Fork DRO

- The Snyder Freeway Corridor Study, adopted in 1988 by Jefferson County Fiscal Court recommended identified the Floyds Fork corridor as a resource to be protected.
- In May of 1991, a planning process for Floyds Fork began. A task force of volunteers was created to develop a plan for the area. This culminated in the following actions:
 - A rezone of a large portion of the study area to the Rural Residential Zoning District.
 - Creation of Development Review Overlay (DRO) Guidelines
 - A rezone to add DRO to the study area
 - This ordinance was approved on March 9, 1993

WHEREAS, the Fiscal Court of Jefferson County has considered the evidence presented at the public hearing held by the Planning Commission and the recommendations of the Commission and its staff as set out in the minutes and records of the Louisville and Jefferson County Planning Commission; and

WHEREAS, the Fiscal Court concurs in and adopts the reasons of the Planning Commission for said zoning change and approves and accepts the recommendations of the Planning Commission in this matter as set out in said minutes;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE FISCAL COURT OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, KENTUCKY:

Section 1. That the above property located in the Floyds Fork Corridor and more particularly described in the minutes and records of the Planning Commission in Docket No. 9-71-92 is hereby changed as follows: (1) R-4 Residential Single Family to R-R Rural Residential; R-1 Residential Single Family to R-R Rural Residential; R-5A Residential Multi-Family to R-R Rural

Purpose of Floyds Fork DRO

- Protect natural environment
- Promote compatible development of land and structures
- Protect property owners and public from:
 - Blighting influences that may occur under conventional land use regulations
 - Unsafe buildings which would be caused by uncontrolled development
 - Significant damage or destruction of prominent hillsides or valleys caused by improper development.
 - From significant damage to the economic value of existing properties and/or new developments.
 - From soil erosion and stream siltation.
 - From the destruction of mature and/or valuable trees and other vegetation and wildlife habitat.
 - From loss of high quality visual character.

Zoning Overlay vs. Design Overlay

Zoning Overlay

- Is a part of the zoning regulations
- Subject to the same limitations as other zoning districts
- Overlays existing zoning districts for a specific area
- Is more restrictive than the underlying zoning
- Usually written as a standard and not a guideline
- Does not include a specific committee for the overlay
- Limited to KRS 100

Design Overlay

- Not part of the zoning regulations
- Focuses on design
 - Building Design
 - Site Design
- Does not regulate use and intensity
- Uses design guidelines to regulate development activity
- Has an overlay committee to review development activity against the design guidelines
- Limited by State Law

Metro Council Resolution

- Adopted by Metro Council on June 9, 2022
- Analyze and revise Floyds Fork DRO in its current state to:
 - Eliminate redundancies
 - Provide clear standards
 - Reflect current needs and conditions
- Engage stakeholders
- Consider a development review overlay committee

Next Steps

- Complete review of overlay guidelines
- Review Best Practices
- Develop options
- Public review of options
- Develop text amendment proposal
- Public review of text amendment proposal
- Text amendment review process
