

THE MAYOR'S WEEK OF VALOR COUNTDOWN BEGINS —IF YOU ARE PLANNING AN EVENT,
IT IS TIME TO SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION!!!

Veterans Community Alliance of Louisville (VCAL) is currently accepting applications for events to be held during Mayor Greg Fischer's Week of Valor. Coinciding with Veteran's Day, Louisville's Seventh Annual Week of Valor celebrates Veterans with a weeklong series of events to honor and commemorate the contributions of our community's past and present service men and women, Veterans, Active Duty, Reserve, National Guard and their families.

Held November 1 - 11, 2021, the Week of Valor events will focus on honoring Veteran contributions to their country and facilitating their successful transition back to civilian life. Applicants should propose an organized event, motivated by the desire to honor and serve these valiant men and women in our community. VCAL's Week of Valor Committee will review all applications and select a variety of events for community-wide celebration and promotion.

If you have an event for the 2021 Week of Valor, please complete the full online application HERE by midnight on October 8, 2021. A copy of your event flyer, organization logo, and any other promotional items must be provided by October 8th in order to be included on the Week of Valor marketing materials. All materials can be uploaded at the same time as your application or forwarded by email to john.miles@louisvilleky.gov. In either case they must be received by the October 8th deadline.

If you have any questions about the application process and/or Week of Valor, please email: john.miles@louisvilleky.gov or you may call (502) 574-5748.

*Sincerely
Week of Valor Committee*

The Mayor's Week of Valor is supported by the Veterans Community Alliance of Louisville (VCAL). VCAL is an initiative launched in 2014 by a group of young professionals participating in Leadership Louisville's IGNITE program in conjunction with Volunteers of America of Kentucky and Seven Counties Services. Now operating with an advisory board comprised of more than two dozen individuals representing corporate, non-profit, government and civic organizations, VCAL's mission is to create an integrated network of support for veterans and their families by coordinating services, resources and initiatives to increase communication across organizational lines, enhance quality and delivery of service and promote veteran-friendly community relations in Louisville.
