

Lawn Care for Cleaner Air and Grow More Mow Less Programs

Quarterly Report: 07/10/2015

Prepared by: Bradley Coomes, Environmental Coordinator

Summer is here and Lawn Care for Cleaner Air rebates are steadily coming in. It's difficult to predict how this year's rebate totals will stack up against previous year's because our participating retailers often wait to send in their rebates until they have a large batch. In other words, we often see very large quantities of rebates come in all at once. We will have a much better picture of expected yearly rebate totals next quarter.

In Grow More Mow Less news, activity on the program's Facebook page has been brisk. The site has gained over 700 new "likes" since the beginning of the year to raise our total to 1,761. This uptick in Facebook activity and interest in the program is due, at least in part, to our other outreach efforts. So far this spring and summer, we have participated and/or presented at Earth Day at the Zoo, Arbor Day at Iroquois Park, and the Library's How-to Festival. Below is a picture showing the great crowd we had for the presentation at the How-to Festival.
