

Spring Volunteer Openings!

The Louisville Metro RSVP (Retired & Senior Volunteer Program) is promoting the following volunteer opportunities. Become an RSVP member, choose an RSVP opportunity to serve and receive FREE benefits of secondary accident, life and liability insurance, annual recognition fun and more! Below is just a sampling of the many agencies and opportunities available. Please call for more information ASAP.

Parkinson's Support Center is currently looking for volunteers to help with Administrative Tasks, help with our Denim & Diamonds and Symposium Committees.

JCPS Homeless Education Program has volunteer openings for: doing outreach about the program in the community and schools, offering professional development skills for the students, and filling and gathering supplies for the backpacks they supply the kids who are assisted by the program.

Olmsted Parks Hogan Fountain Project is seeking volunteers to help restore this popular destination in Cherokee Park. We plan to hand-pull invasive plants such as garlic mustard and to mulch the trees in the area. Gloves, tools and guidance will be provided. Be sure to keep the weather in mind for possible cancellation. 49 Volunteers are still needed on Tuesday, April 21st from 1:30pm-4:30 pm

Habitat for Humanity is seeking volunteers to assist with various construction opportunities (no special skills needed). Related opportunities include: -Framing -Moving walls to work-site -Siding -Insulation - Drywall -Landscaping. 30 volunteers are still needed. Scheduling TBD.

American Red Cross /Louisville Fire Dept are seeking volunteers be part of team of 10 per neighborhood to go door-to-door providing educational literature about fire safety and installing smoke detectors where needed. Full or half-day shifts are available during Give A Day week (April.18-26). Up to 300 volunteers are desired for this potentially life-saving project .

Kid's Café Tutors: Volunteers are needed at many sites to offer homework help and nutritionally balanced food service to neighborhood children in the late afternoon and evenings. Hours range from 3:00 PM- 7PM, usually in 1 ½ hour shifts per site. Call the RSVP office for location near you!

KY SMP (Kentucky Senior Medicare Patrol) welcomes new volunteers to help with education fairs, preparation of educational materials and to assist clients with questions on Medicare charges (training provided).

Get connected and "Spring" into doing good things!

Join RSVP today!

Call 574-1530 or email Michelle.Nickerson@louisvilleky.gov

