

“Financial Empowerment trainings provide great tips on instructing individuals from all backgrounds in all areas of financial empowerment.”

Amy J.
Independent Living/Employment Specialist

Support for the production and printing of this document was provided by the National Center on Leadership for the Employment and Economic Advancement of People with Disabilities (LEAD), a collaborative of disability, workforce and economic empowerment organizations led by the National Disability Institute with funding from the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy, Grant No. #OD-23863-12-754-11. This document does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Office of Disability Employment Policy, U.S. Department of Labor, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

“Financial Empowerment training gave me
the tools to better understand and assist my clients with their financial concerns.”

Erin H.
Career Counselor

Support for the production and printing of this document was provided by the National Center on Leadership for the Employment and Economic Advancement of People with Disabilities (LEAD), a collaborative of disability, workforce and economic empowerment organizations led by National Disability Institute with funding from the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of the Disability Employment Policy, Grant No. #OD-23863-12-754-11. This document does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Office of Disability Employment Policy, U.S. Department of Labor, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government “Knowledge is power!

Empowering others is something I take with me everywhere.”

Jamila B.
Workforce Development
Technician

Support for the production and printing of this document was provided by the National Center on Leadership for the Employment and Economic Advancement of People with Disabilities (LEAD), a collaborative of disability, workforce and economic empowerment organizations led by the National Disability Institute with funding from the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy, Grant No. #OD-23863-12-754-11. This document does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Office of Disability Employment Policy, U.S. Department of Labor, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

“My goal is to impact the lives of our clients by giving them tools to help them avoid the financial mistakes so many make.”

Jennifer H.

Youth Training Facilitator

Support for the production and printing of this document was provided by the National Center on Leadership for the Employment and Economic Advancement of People with Disabilities (LEAD), a collaborative of disability, workforce and economic empowerment organizations led by the National Disability Institute with funding from the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Disability Employment Policy, Grant No. #OD-23863-12-754-11. This document does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Office of Disability Employment Policy, U.S. Department of Labor, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

“I believe all people have the ability to enhance their financial knowledge and skills and can achieve life long self-sufficiency.”

Jocelyn F.
Family Services Coordinator

Support for the production and printing of this document was provided by the National Center on Leadership for the Employment and Economic Advancement of People with Disabilities (LEAD), a collaborative of disability, workforce and economic empowerment organizations led by the National Disability Institute with funding from the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy, Grant No. #OD-23863-12-754-11. This document does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Office of Disability Employment Policy, U.S. Department of Labor, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

“Committed to being the financial role model clients need in order to change their financial behaviors for success.”

Joi B.
Social Service Program Specialist

Support for the production and printing of this document was provided by the National Center on Leadership for the Employment and Economic Advancement of People with Disabilities (LEAD), a collaborative of disability, workforce and economic empowerment organizations led by the National Disability Institute with funding from the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy, Grant No. #OD-23863-12-754-11. This document does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Office of Disability Employment Policy, U.S. Department of Labor, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

“It is important to respect where the individual comes from but also to assist them to build the skills that they need to improve their situation”

Sarah R.
Program Coordinator

Support for the production and printing of this document was provided by the National Center on Leadership for the Employment and Economic Advancement of People with Disabilities (LEAD), a collaborative of disability, workforce and economic empowerment organizations led by the National Disability Institute with funding from the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy, Grant No. #OD-23863-12-754-11. This document does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Office of Disability Employment Policy, U.S. Department of Labor, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.