Louisville Metro TRIAD

TRIAD

Law Enforcement and Seniors Working Together

WHAT IS A TRIAD?

TRIAD is...
An agreement between local law enforcement, senior service providers and older or retired volunteers in our community to work together for the increased safety & welfare of seniors .

TRIAD is...
A concept of cooperation to reduce criminal victimization of the elderly.

TRIAD is...
A joint approach to crime and safety issues which affect older citizens and the enhanced delivery of law enforcement.

TRIAD includes...
The Louisville Metro Police Department, AARP, and the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office in cooperation with local seniors and service providers.

WHAT DOES TRIAD DO?

COMMUNICATES
by providing a forum for law enforcement and the community to share needs and concerns—and develop solutions.

EDUCATES
through crime prevention programs and victim / witness programs for older persons.

EMPHASIZES
training programs for older persons to reduce fear and provide moral support.

INCREASES
public awareness of safety concerns for older persons and of the need to be alert for signs of elder maltreatment.

INVOLVES
seniors and law enforcement together in developing community-wide solutions.

WHAT CAN RESULT?

REDUCE
victimization of older persons.

IMPROVE
quality of life for older residents of our community.

FOCUS
attention to the crime-related needs and concerns of older persons.

EXPAND
involvement of the community in implementing effective solutions.

INCREASE
community knowledge of services, resources and events.

ENHANCE
law enforcement services to seniors through increased respect and understanding.

Louisville Metro TRIAD meets MONTHLY on the 2nd Tuesday at 11:30am Swiss Hall, 719 Lynn St.
