Louisville Metro Parks and Recreation operates 13 community centers, two senior centers, two arts centers and one indoor aquatic center. Each offers a unique variety of classes, activities and events.

When you're looking for a welcoming environment - to finish homework, get in shape, learn a new hobby, or more - please call or visit your neighborhood community center.

Available programs (which vary by location) include:

- Fitness classes for all ages
- Arts and crafts
- Athletic leagues
- Walking clubs
- Weight rooms
- Reds Rookie Success Program
- Senior outreach
- Nutrition programs

- WIFI Free Wi-Fi (11)
- COMP Computer Lab (7)
- CAFÉ Kid's Café (12)
- ZONE Zone of Hope Site (4)
- SENR Senior Meals (5)

Dare to Care Food Bank's Kids Café offers free, nutritious evening meals to youth 18 and under.

502/966-3821

Four centers also offer nutritious meals for seniors, with fun activities before and after serving time.

Zones of Hope is a group made up of 60 community organizations working in the Newburg, Russell, Parkland, Shawnee and California Communities to reduce violent crime.
