

Share music fun with a child you love!

Watch your child bloom with music, and share the fun along with your child! You'll sing, dance, chant, explore child-friendly instruments, and laugh together with every class.

Recordings and songbooks included in tuition let you keep the music going all week long. And with mixed-age classes, siblings can play in the same class!

For babies through preschool – plus the grownups who love them

Classes now forming at Cyril Allgeier Community Center

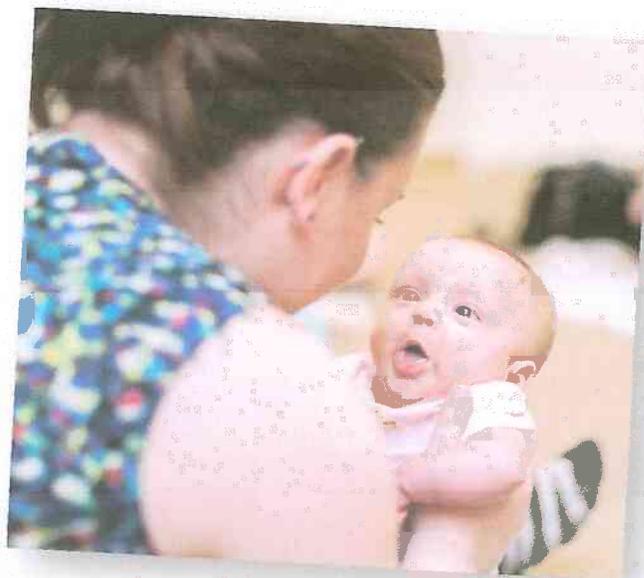

Thursdays 1 pm, starting January 7

Because this location is supported by the city, tuition is reduced for classes at this location only. Tuition at this location is $140 for a 10-week winter term. (Includes all materials)

We offer additional classes all around Louisville. Check our website for more class times and locations.
