Hope & Healing

A Community Celebration of Life

Join us to remember and celebrate the lives of people who died a violent death by homicide, suicide or accident

Sunday, March 6, 2016

Muhammad Ali Center, 144 North Sixth Street, 6th Floor, Louisville

4:00 - 5:30 p.m. – Healing Space and Memorial Display

Individuals, families and children are invited to bring photos and/or mementos of the person(s) who died to be included in a memorial display. A variety of art materials will be provided for creating memorial pages and other symbols of hope and remembrance. Counselors and trained volunteers will be available to assist. Please join us for refreshments, music and time for reflection leading up to the Remembrance Ceremony.

5:45 p.m. – Remembrance Ceremony

Participants will gather in the Healing Space for readings, music and messages of hope, honoring and celebrating the lives of those being remembered. We will hear from survivors how they have coped and moved forward after experiencing sudden and tragic loss.

The Ali Center exhibits may also be viewed at no cost from 4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Hosted by the Hosparus Grief Counseling Center, Interfaith Paths to Peace and the Louisville Metro Chapter of the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention

Registration is preferred. Please call 502-456-5451 or 888-345-8197 or email Jeanne Omer at jomer@hosparus.org to register or for more information.

This event is made possible through the generosity of the Muhammad Ali Center and the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth
